

SPORTING CHANCE

Sporting Chance is a nonprofit organization providing outdoor opportunities for physically and mentally challenged adults and children. We help make experiences in the great outdoors a reality.

How can you help?

Our programs are staffed entirely by volunteers. Whether you are an experienced outdoors person or simply want to provide a helping hand, there is something for everyone to do at all of our events.

Through its members and volunteers, we have been able to bring a “Sporting Chance” to many individuals who are physically or mentally challenged. We provide them alternative means to hook the big one, bag a trophy deer, call in a wild turkey, bag a pheasant, swish the snow-capped slopes, ride the waves on Nelson Lake, or just go for a pontoon ride and enjoy the great outdoors!

Providing opportunities for people with disabilities to enjoy
the outdoors through hunting, fishing and recreational activities.

Sporting Chance by Steve Piper

My hunting days are numbered at least so does me think.
For the Lord does have that number,
and will take me quick as a wink.
But 'til He does come take me,
I'll hunt and fish everyday I can,
And I'll do it with my partner,
known as best friend to man.
We've walked 'bout every field,
from here to settin' sun.
And she's always there beside me,
when the day is done.
The birds they don't come easy,
and my game bag is usually light,
But to me and my friend it doesn't matter
when we come home at night.
She accepts my every weakness,
my disability as well,
For when we're in the field,
I don't think either of us can tell.
The pain that's so prevalent,
when I wake at dawn,
Somehow doesn't matter,
in the time that we are gone.
For hunting and fishing are my life blood,
always in my veins,
And will always be there,
as long as life remains.
I thank the Lord in heaven,
for my life He did enhance.
For with friends, His grace and blessing,
I got my "Sporting Chance."
